Hospital Board Votes Logue New Contract

By a 4-2 vote following a heated discussion of the merits, trust of the board of Hancock General Hospital last night voted to extend the contract of Administrator Thomas O. Logue for five years effective June 1, cancelling the existing agreement which has 16 months to run. Logue on Wednesday he will sign the agreement.

It was the second time in as many meetings that Logue's contract came up after the step was unanimously recommended by local physicians practicing at the hospital. As before, Treasurer K. W. Pepperdine made the motion and Beat 1 Trustee Mrs. T. P. Ward seconded.

The matter had died with a 3-3 vote at the April session when Beat 4 member Frank M. Selph was absent.

Selph gave his backing to the plan this time, saying the hospital has prospered under Logue's administration. He quoted an unidentified attorney said to earlier have opposed the hospital who after visiting the late Emilio J. Cue there said he had been much impressed by what he saw.

"In the light of that, what is the objection to Tom?" he asked. "It's time to stop acting like children and act like grown-ups," he admonished his colleagues.

As soon as Pepperdine brought up the administrator's contract as the one item of new business, Logue said he would go along with whatever the board decided but requested that with-out calling for an executive session non members of the board (the Echo reporter present, Dr. Andrew Martinovich, Jr., and himself) excuse themselves from the discussion.

Hubert Thigpen, trustee from Beat 2, said he saw no reason to exclude anyone from the discussion and wanted to know why all employees weren't given five-year contracts.

Midway through Selph's remarks the Beat 4 member requested Dr. Martinovich to step outside briefly. The physician explained he was simply representing the medical staff to see that the letter presented in April was aired again and left the room.

Outside School Gym Use Eyed

Use of school facilities by outside groups plus relative manner were discussed by the board of Bay St. Louis Separate School District at its meeting Monday night.

All bills submitted were approved. In the absence of Wayne Hamilton, Robert Hamilton presented the question of use by outside groups of Bay High gymnasium or auditorium was discussed after Superintendent J.

D. McCulloch reported the Bay Jaycees have requested use again this year of the gym for their Miss Bay St. Louis beauty contest.

McCulloch explained that the policy he had followed in permitting outside agencies use of school facilities had depended on whether the event was for a civic or non-profit making purpose. In the case of the Jaycees it was his memory that they did charge for admission and without making a recommendation, he asked the board whether permission for the gym's use by this organization should be given.

He also advised that expenses to the school for two nights use of the gym would be about $25 including janitorial expenses and that in their use last year the Jaycees had caused no damage.

Maurice J. Artigues suggested that the Jaycees were a "sort of civic" organization and moved that McCulloch be authorized to let the Jaycees use the gym on condition they paid the actual out-of-pocket expenses involved. Seconded by member Don McCulloch the authority was given unanimously.

McCulloch said plans called for summer school classes in mathematics, English and history, but other subjects would be taught if there was enough demand. Tuition is $30 for the summer session.

Artigues inquired how many teachers plan to attend college during this year's vacation and McCulloch replied about 10 or 12. He explained that teachers with A certificates to maintain them had to take eight quarter or six semester hours in an accredited college every five years. For those with a AA certificate, requiring a master's degree, the state law on certification requires the same college every 10 years.

A decision on abolishing eighth grade graduation ceremony was postponed until next week after the superintendent reported on a discipline problem which arises in the process of securing the necessary caps and gowns. Those who are to graduate usually are measured for the paraphernalia about three weeks before the exercises. As a result, he explained, those who graduate tend to stop studying and those who know they

LAST MINUTE VOTERS - After a relatively quiet day a large number of voters converged on the polls at City Hall shortly before 6 p.m. Tuesday to vote for mayor and two commissioners. By agreement of the election commissioners anyone standing in line at 6 p.m. was allowed to vote, the last vote being accepted about 7 p.m.

$1,300 Stolen Early Tuesday

More than $1,300, including $966.88 in cafeteria funds, were stolen early Tuesday from Hancock North Central School.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Gerald V. Price, Jr., who with Sgt. Donald Marquis, lifted fingerprints and made one set of footprints, said it is believed more than one person is involved. No arrests have yet been made. The sheriff's office said today.

Leo Rouse, North Central principal, said the intruders used crow bars to break a lock on a back door, the office entrance and three inner office doors. Broken into were the principal's office, key room and vault from which the silver, currency and personal checks were taken.

In addition to the cafeteria funds, stolen was $193.69 from the senior class caps and gowns fund and $201.30 from that fund for the eighth grade. Rouse fixed the total at $1,361.87.

The principal said he believed the theft took place between 3 and 5 a.m. Tuesday because of prints apparently made after the early morning thunderstorm. The Parent-Teacher Association was in session at the school until about 10:30 p.m. Monday and Rouse said the telephone in his office was used about 9 a.m.

In other crime around the county, Donald Seay was bound over to the September grand jury without bail after a hearing before Beat 5 Justice of the Peace Nellus Rhodes Monday on charges of rape and assault of a young woman. The attack allegedly occurred April 26.

Three Canadian juveniles were released to immigration authorities Wednesday to be returned to their home in Ladysmith, B.C., after being fined $30 and costs by JP Rhodes for trespassing and possessing pornographic literature.

The boys were in a new Renault which was a gift from the guardian of one.

Marion Hillhouse, 27, of Logtown was one of two men rescued early Wednesday after the tug they were operating sank in Lake Pontchartrain. A third member of the crew drowned.

Hillhouse was spotted by a Coast Guard helicopter clinging to wreckage of the tug, Southern, and was taken aboard the plane. He said he had held the drowned man, Roy Smith of Franklin, La., for more than two hours after he died but finally had to let him go.

Hillhouse and Clyde Wood, 20, of Picayune were taken to the U. S. Public Health Service Hospital where they were reported in good condition. The tug was reported to have sunk about 2:30 a.m. Wednesday three miles east of the turn-around point on the Lake Pontchartrain causeway.

Bay St. Louis Beauty Pageant Date Announced

Montana cowboy Dale Morris captured by Tulsa, Okla., police last Friday has waived extradition but is being held there on charges of assault with intent to kill after he shot a policeman April 23.

Annual Miss Bay St. Louis pageant sponsored by the Jaycees has been set for 8 p.m. July 1 at Bay High School gymnasium with E. J. Marengo as director and Michael Hays, co-director.

Entrants must be 18 years old, high school graduate, single and a county resident. Those interested should contact the entries committee, Mrs. Marengo or Mrs. Bert Stieffel, or call HO 7-5390.

Hospital Workers Get Chance at Retirement

Employees of Hancock General Hospital will be asked in the next month whether they wish to come under benefits of the State Retirement System. The board of trustees Tuesday night directed Administrator Thomas O. Logue to invite a representative of the retirement system to outline its benefits to the staff when he comes here to discuss how employee meals should be listed for social security or income tax purposes.

Logue already has talked with the man about meals and he recommended including the cost in the social security payments since it would augment retirement benefits.

Trustees voiced concern over an upswing in operating costs vs. revenue last month which Logue attributed to fewer patients. Treasurer K. W. Pepperdine noted 481 patients with a daily average of 16 were listed in April compared with 623 patients at 20 per day in March. He said May so far has run much lighter.

Logue observed patient earnings last month were about $11,000 whereas the hospital needs $17,000 to $21,000 to break even. As a result even more emphasis is being placed on collecting accounts receivable. A docket of $5,506.68 was approved.

Hospital Week Is Noted

House from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today will climax the observance of National Hospital Week at Hancock General Hospital which will mark its first anniversary in two weeks.

Administrator Thomas O. Logue invited all civic clubs, churches and businesses in the county urging them to visit the modern 32-bed hospital at this time and familiarize themselves with what it has and does.

Members of the hospital auxiliary will conduct tours of the building and be hostesses at a pink tea during the open house.

Displays illustrating the latest in hospital equipment and methods have been placed at Wing-D 1 x 1 c, Jimmy Jungle, Jerome's, Stevenson's Electric and Deland's Drug as a part of the observance.

The Civil War Centennial theme will be carried out at a party for employees, the medical staff and trustees Friday night at the Jaycees Hall. Most of those attending will wear clothes of the 1861 vintage and dancing will be by candlelight as it would have been 100 years ago. Even the soldiers and square dance callers will adhere to the theme.

Souvenirs for the open house have been provided by the local banks and Globe Laundry, Logue said. He also has leaders outlining the development of the hospital in Hancock County from the days when Dr. A. P. Smith operated clinic prior to 1921 and today's operation.

Congratulations

Well, the election of city officials is over. People that have been here all their lives say it was about the quietest city election ever. Irrespective, we think six people deserve congratulations in one aspect or another.

Obviously, the three officials who were reelected, Mayor John A. Seaford and Commissioners J. Cyril Glover and Varon Traub, are to be congratulated for the confidence the majority of voters expressed in them.

The three candidates who failed of election are also to be congratulated, or at least complimented, for making an effort few of us are willing to put forth. They gave the time, energy and money needed to campaign for public office. The Echo congratulates all six candidates, Johnnie, Cyril, Warren and Russell, Burton and Lucas.

Hospitals, Politics

Tuesday's meeting of the board of Hancock General Hospital may have been stormy and perhaps the board's majority made an incorrect decision or two, though we don't think so. The major issue, continued from their last meeting, was an extended contract for Hospital Administrator Thomas O. Logue which was approved by a four to two vote with one member abstaining.

Two other more ephemeral questions were pointedly brought out by the members discussion. The first was whether "politics" was involved in voting for an extension of Mr. Logue's contract. In a sense we think that is probable but by whom could well be the subject of a real dispute, and, basically, even if "politics" influenced some members on either side, Mr. Logue's competence was the major issue. When the locally practicing doctors unanimously recommended, on their own initiative, that Mr. Logue's contract be extended, we think it would be hard for the board not to follow this recommendation, even though we feel that "politics" (not by Mr. Logue) may have entered in a vague way into the decision.

The other action by the board that appears important to us is the confidence the board showed in the "press" when, without dissent and over Mr. Logue's objections, the Echo's managing editor was not excluded from their meeting when a major personnel question was being discussed. The public was represented and, if anything untoward occurred, the public would be informed of it. Nothing of the sort did.

We hope that whether it is the hospital board of any other public body the Echo does not on any occasion betray such confidence in its discretion.

LIFE ALONG PEARL RIVER

By HENRY OTIS Phone 2864

Guests of Mrs. Pauline West on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Jr., and Josephine, of Hattiesburg.

Doris Jean Ruffin was a week-end visitor of her brother-in-law, and her sister Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore in Pearl River, La.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brieger and Jackson were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howze in Logansport.

Oscar Breland, principal of Logansport School, announces the formation of two baseball teams consisting of boys in the 12-16 age group. They will play other teams in the area on Saturdays during the summer but won't join a league until next year.

Breland also reports that the softball league recently formed in the area will take part in a tournament at Nicholson beginning at noon Sunday, with eight teams participating.

Rev. and Mrs. Bertis Rouse and family spent the weekend in Lucedale with their relatives, on the occasion of Mrs. Rouse's mother's birthday. They attended Sunday services at Pine Grove Methodist Church. During the absence of Mr. Rouse Sunday, Dan Egan and Henry Otis, lay speakers, handled the services at the Pearl River and Logansport Methodist Churches, respectively.

Friday night, three members of the MYF of these churches, Carolyn Otis, Kathleen Moran and Norman Davisworth, accompanied by Henry Otis, adult counselor, attended the District Christian Vocations Rally in Hattiesburg. Mr. Rouse announces that the members of the MYF will be selling a Bible concordance, the 460 page Bible in My Everyday Life.

A shower was held last Friday night for Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wilkerson, the former Jane Mitchell. Hostesses were Mesdames Jerry Williams, Robert Lee, Helen Lee, Paul Barber, Bruce Carver and Hazel Necaise. Refreshments were served by Mesdames Connie Necaise, Connie Carver, Diane Barber and Marie Lee. Jewel Carter and Mike Gerick presented the gifts to the honoree.

Jules Lagarde celebrated his ninth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lagarde entertained last Friday afternoon at their home on St. Charles Street in compliment to their son, Jules, II, on the occasion of his ninth birthday.

The children enjoyed an afternoon of games under the direction of Mary Lagarde and Alaina Lagarde.

The guests were Francis Shippey, Dennis Carver, Wayne Diomb, Max Glanelloni, Jr., Lex Munday, Terry Phillips, Norman Coward, Cornell and Stanford Lasher, Maria diBenedetto, Debbie Schama, Barbara Bezzo, Carla Marshall and Karen Prosser.

Jules' grandmother, Mrs. Jules Lagarde, came from New Orleans to join the festivities.

Jim Wagner, son of Mrs. Lewis M. Wagner, celebrated his eighth birthday Friday at the Bay Bowling Center. His guests were classmates at Christ Episcopal Day School.

Coast Electric Meeting Held In Logtown Area

More than 125 members of Coast Electric Power Assn. and their guests attended the third in a series of community meetings sponsored by Parent-Teacher Assns. in the Coast Electric service area at Logtown School last Tuesday.

The program followed the pattern of previous meetings with a technicolor film, an address by Manager H. H. Sharuck, a question and answer period and over $100 worth of door prizes. The purpose is to present the rural electrification and Coast Electric stories to the members and better inform them of the operations of the association.

Prize winners were Rita Taylor, toaster; A. L. Carver, coffee maker; C. E. Martin, cooler; Paul Barber, ironing equipment; George E. McArthur, skillet; Willie E. Ruffin, lamp and Annie Summers, ham. Bags of bulbs went to Mrs. D. R. Weston, Lloyd Dunnaway, Oscar Breland, Monte Breland and Carrie Dianne Pullman.

Cooperating in behalf of the Logtown P-TA was Henry Otis, secretary, Rev. Bertis Rouse, pastor of Logtown Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

Daughters, Altar Society Plan Luncheon on June 1

Plans were completed for the annual luncheon of St. Margaret's Daughters and the Altar and Blessed Sacrament Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church at their joint meeting last Thursday. The event will be at 1 p.m., Thursday, June 1, in the cafeteria of Our Lady of the Gulf School.

Those expecting to attend are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Stella Gex. Donation will be $1. Each guild leader is requested to contact members in her group.

Mrs. Albert Kuehn, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. V. J. Piazza, president of St. Margaret's Daughters.

Members were thanked for their donations to the veteran's party. Mrs. Piazza and Mrs. Charles Beyer attended the affair at the Gulfport VA Hospital April 15.

Reports of aid to needy families revealed that medicine and food had been given to eight families, three pairs of shoes and six robes were provided for six children making their first communion recently and eight

The board will be in a better position to discuss revisions. Service contracts were approved with Lanier Co. at $50 for office equipment and National Cash Register Co. at $71.40 for bookkeeping equipment after Logue checked the list of contracts offered now that the hospital is a year old. He was asked to check with the firm installing the water tank on maintenance of that.
Logue reported Mrs. Ruth Meilleur, dietitian, has been out ill and will return to nursing floor duty when she recovers. Recognition was made of the wheel and orthopedic chairs recently donated by Charles P. Brann.

On U. S. 90 where they took some small change and food items. Three New Orleans juveniles are in custody there and one has admitted the stealing and entering April 16 of the home of O. H. Williams on Mollere Drive, Waveland.

Taken was a shotgun, rifle, knives, and a radio. One told officers he threw the rifle in Bayou St. John in New Orleans. The sheriff observed that when he goes to New Orleans Monday to attend the extradition hearing of Albert Andrews, Negro, wanted in the Winn-Dixie burglary, he will take a skin-diver and attempt to recover the gun.

Restor to Direct June Dairy
James Raster, prominent North County civic leader, Mississippi, will direct June Dairy Month activities in Hancock County this year. This annual nation-wide event seeks to increase the sales and consumption of milk and cream products.
The American Dairy Association is sponsoring the motion on a national basis. Five counties in Mississippi already have been sponsoring promotional activities.

won't do the same. Wondering whether a ceremony should be observed with McCulloch noted the Bay system differs from those whose highest grade is the eighth. Hamilton questioned the wisdom of these students having caps and gowns, observing it would be less expensive if this formality was stopped and the so doing would end the problems cited by McCulloch. J. W. Watts, Jr., wondered what importance the students attached to the ceremony with general agreement, that the parents probably were more interested than their children. He also queried why couldn't all eighth grade students be measured in January, thereby not disclosing who had succeeded in graduating.
Logue Contract...

jump 16 months ahead of time. There's a motive behind this and it's not coming out."
"You've only got four reasons? Haas asked the pro-extension trustees. "I've got plenty against it... this is all in the spirit of a good clean argument... my main objection is that it's premature." In elaboration he noted that the present hospital has not yet been in operation for 12 months and it would be better to consider the case with the experience of 12 months after the hospital is a year old.
At that stage, Selph went to call Dr. Martinolich and Logue back into the meeting room. Haas continued that 12 months will prove a loss. Three new members will be coming on the board shortly and should be shown the courtesy of a voice in the decision, he declared. "I'm just like you, Mr. Haas, and the motive just doesn't look right," Thigpen added.
Reboul countered that Logue was a good citizen and wanted to buy a home in the Bay, therefore deserving protection.
"Security for Tom is not a matter for the board to consider," Haas argued, contending the worst thing for the board to do was to stop a man from getting a better job.
Logue interposed that Haas had been the first to approach him about taking the Hancock job and if he and other trustees could not determine his abilities after two years how could a new trustee. He inquired about suggestions for collecting overdue bills in the light of the county's economy and cited that as one of 10 or more functions for an administrator.
"Who are the new trustees we're crying over and taking so much interest in?" Selph wanted to know.
"It seems to me if the supervisors don't reappoint these three men now serving they are derelict in their duty," declared Dr. Martinolich rising to his feet.
"They are among the best ever appointed and anyone looking at their interest and record can see that." (Those whose term expire Sept. 30 are Selph of Bay and Haas and Pepperdene appointed at large.)
To Selph's observation the by-laws provide 60 days notice to terminate a contract. Haas countered contracts should be entered in full faith, that Logue 11 months were not sufficient time, and acknowledged appreciation for the medical staff letter.
Logue noted he had served the board for 18 months, adding "I've never been on trial, I can here and said I could do the job. He cited as his contributions civic affairs his recent election as Jaycee president and a director of Rotary International.
After the vote was taken Pepperdene voiced concern over wording of the motion on sale which Attorney Sam Favre advised had to be included it could be changed at a later date. It was left at his present position when Secretary Haas inserted comma between five years and the salary.

Miss Randolph Married to Mr. Bailey in Home Rites

White roses and gladioli were used in profusion to decorate the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarence Randolph for the wedding of their daughter, Norma Glenda, and Bob Gene Bailey of Chickasaw, Ala. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey of Chickasaw.

Rev. E. E. Price performed the double ring ceremony at 6 p.m. before an arch entwined with greenery, Confetti, streamers and white roses.

Mrs. E. Ragusa presented a program of spiritual music before and during the ceremony.

Miss Randolph chose for her marriage a white and beige silk organza frock featuring an all over embroidery of tiny beige and brown flowers. Her hat was of beige trimmed with veiling and her other accessories were of bone. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli, stephanotis and Queen Anne's lace.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Robert Poole of New Orleans. Her dress was also of beige and brown silk with a matching hat and alligator accessories. Her bouquet was of California daisies and Queen Anne's lace.

William Harrison of Pritchard, Ala., was the best man. Mrs. Randolph received in a navy blue lace gown and white accessories. Her flowers were pale pink gladioli and white sweet peas.

The four-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table which was covered with a white cut-work linen cloth. A bouquet of Queen Anne's lace also trimmed the table.

For their wedding trip to Louisiana and Texas, the bride selected a two-piece ensemble of beige, matching accessories and a corsage of white flowers.

They will be at home on Main Street temporarily until they move to Mobile.

Mrs. Bailey was graduated from Bay High School and is employed at Merchants Bank. The groom attended schools in Quinlan, and is employed with the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Randolph and Mrs. James Randolph, all of New Orleans, Thomas Bailey, William Bailey, Thomas Bailey, Jr., and many others.

City Echoes

Edward Sbardella, Jr., grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Capdepone won the state science award in high school competition recently. He is a senior at Biloxi High School and plans to attend Tulane University.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Capdepone have returned from Houston, Tex., where they visited their sons, Bertrand, Joseph and Fred, and their families.

Mrs. William B. Myers, Jr., and her daughter, Julie, of Joplin, Mo., were weekend guests of Mrs. John McDonald. Mesdames Myers and McDonald were roommates during their college days at Gulf Park and at the University of Missouri.

Roy Kuhn of LaGrange, Ill., was a guest last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Don Prentice.

Miss Jean Larroux, sophomore at Loyola University, is among 19 coeds at the institution to organize a Zeta chapter of Kappa Beta Gamma, national social sorority on the Loyola campus. She has been named historian for the chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan M. Russell, Jr., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kerr for the Century Club dance in Gulfport last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gudertion and sons, Jimmie and Kent, and Miss Joyce Silkman were weekend guests of Mrs. Hazel Dahlin in Waveland. The boys spent much time fishing and Jimmie caught three gars which Ken used for crab bait.

Mrs. William C. Scarborough and her young daughter, Janie, will return at the weekend to their new home in Jackson after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Favre.

Miss Diane Tufaro accompanied her grandparents, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Van Trier of New Orleans, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Billy E. McLain, last weekend and attended the Little Theater production of Kiss and Tell in which Mrs. McLain had one of the leading roles.

Mrs. Walter Russo was released last Wednesday from Memorial Hospital at Gulfport where she has been a surgical patient. Her condition is good and she is able to receive callers.

Linda McCulloch, Keesa Bruyner, Margie Byrd, Gaudier Mayfield, Emmett Normand, and a 11e Pepperdine, Rippe Lousch, Bill Senter, Toni White, and Gail Stewart and Mrs. Walter Rausch, adult co-leaders, attended the state convention of the House of Episcopate Young Churchwomen in Gulfport last weekend.

Mrs. Ruth Linderbach is visiting Mrs. Dunbar Chambers in Houston, Tex.

Expected to spend this weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Argenson are their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory G. Kergosien, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russell, of Waveland.

Miss Kidd, Bride-Elect Is Honored

Arrangements of Easter lilies adorned the reception room of the home of Mrs. Maurice Archang on Union Street Sunday afternoon when Mrs. C. F. Mitchell, Mrs. Lucien and Mrs. Sheila Scoussan entertained in compliment to Miss Barbara Kidd whose wedding to Gerald Rigby will be an event of May 27.

A procession of pale yellow lilies was the bride-elect's choice for the occasion and she was presented a novelty corsage of tiny lilies wovenly interspersed with pink flowers in keeping with the color scheme. Her mother, Mrs. Raymond Kidd, was in a yellow and gray striped summer frock and her flowers were blue carnations.

The miscellaneous gifts were presented in a gaily decorated barrel, in pink and white, also. Refreshments were served from a table covered in white Irish damask centered with Easter lilies. A crystal punch bowl was at one end and a wedding cake at the other. Assisting in serving was Mrs. Gary Wesley.

About 40 were invited to share the occasion.

Mrs. Barbara Kidd and Mr. Gerald Rigby have selected the attendants for their wedding. Mrs. Charles Scoussan will be the matron of honor and the other attendants will be two cousins of the bride-elect, Mrs. Anderson Falborn and Miss Judy Quintal. Thomas Meyer of Albuquerque, N. M., and New Orleans, a classmate of the groom-elect at Loyola University, will be best man, groomsman will be a brother of the bride-elect, Thomas Kidd, and Charles Steele. Ushering will be Nellus Rhodes, Jr., George Parnum of Atlanta, Ga., Ellis Schexynadre of Washington, D. C., and Carlo Scalfidi.

Miss Ramond Is to Marry Mr. Peterson

Announcement is made this week by Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Ramond of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Doris, to Larry J. Peterson, son of Mrs. Harold Garcia and Lawrence Peterson of Clermont Harbor.

The wedding will be an event of June 3 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

The bride-elect will be graduated next week from Bay High School. Her fiancé is a graduate of Bay High and served in the Marine Corps before taking a position in New Orleans.

Marriage Licenses

Marriage licenses issued by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis the past week were to George Malcolm Thornton and Mrs. Mary A. Jeanfreau Bourgeois and Walter Nilsson and Alice Gephart, all of Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Lambert T. Boyd, Jr., was installed as president of Christ Episcopal Day School Parent-Teacher Assn., Monday night. Officers who will serve with her are Mrs. Rene de Montluzin, vice president; Mrs. Fred Wagner, secretary; and Mrs. Claude Yarbrough, treasurer.

A report of the recent rodeo was presented by the outgoing president, Mrs. T. F. McCanley. A planned project for the first two months of the next school term was discussed. Funds derived from the project will be used to furnish and finish the teacher's lounge.

SJA Gets $3,000 From Parents Club

A check for $3,000 was presented to Mother M. Eveline, superior of St. Joseph Academy, at the meeting of the Parents Club Tuesday.

The club also sent a spiritual bouquet to Rt. Rev. Martin Moloney, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, who is ill.

SPRING BEAUTY - Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Peters have transformed their new lawn at 203 Leonhard Ave., into a fairyland setting of myriad of varicolored spring flowers and were awarded the Garden of the Month plaque by the Bay Waveland Garden Club.

Bobbie Fayard Notes 7th Year

Little Bobbie Fayard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, celebrated her seventh birthday at a party on Sunday, May 7 at the family home on Third Street.

Mischievous Chinese umbrellas and fancy pink napkins filled with candy surrounded the cake and were given to each guest on a favor. Ice cream, pink punch, and cake were served by Mrs. Fayard.

Elect JOHN S. BORDAGES for School Board

To the voters of Cleburne Water-Lake School District.

I am seeking election for the School Board as an INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE. I am not affiliated with any political group or organization. I DO NOT HAVE ANY RUNNING MATE.

I ask all voters to give me their support; I promise you that I will do everything in my power to keep the Gulfview School at Lakeshore and keep politics out of the school.

Your children, my grandchildren and the community need this school. I promise to continue what has been started - to enlarge the school to accommodate the students now enrolled; I also promise to work with other members of this board to better the school conditions throughout the County.

RAMSEY'S

olly Peers At Waveland

Intensive research, a bit of detective work involving the traditional Holmes double-billed cap and a magnifying glass, and much discussion with various authorities on the subject, finally discovered the reason for the unseasonably cool weather of last week. It all goes back to "Blackberry Winter" — a prolonged and mild variation of the same. Despite the fact that the berries have now popped out all over the place, we must wait for the pure white blossom in full bloom — and everyone must wait for the blossoms and cool weather just natural — together — so much for this week's nature study — on to topics of other type.

Will begin with the glad tidings that Mary Wilcox and brand new baby are now at home and the young lady is doing beautifully. May and Wesley Haas are also the proud parents of a daughter, their fourth child and second girl arrived at Gulf Memorial last Friday weighing eight pounds and a half ounce — are presently trying to decide between Gina Ann and Gina as her name.

Rock Notes

As well in a hurry wishes go to Dick Proctor who is confined to his home with a heart condition, to Sam Blanchard — he has the blues which seems to plague most executives, an ulcer, and a lack of sympathy to Gerri — she poured all of that milk and cream into the laryngitis Saturday but has now regained her voice. The Henry Stillers and the James LaFrances took a spin to Duck Hill, recently to visit the Stillers' daughter and son-in-law, the L. L. Bells. Visiting the Stillers last week were their three daughters and granddaughters — they entertained the guests with dinner at Haverty's.

Mystery of the Week

Everyone probably knows that Bootie Wolfe's real name isn't Bootie — but who besides Baby Love Bourgeois and your reporter knows what happens to be written on her baptismal certificate? Last Tuesday Ferd Koenig, Curtis Everage, Jim Guffy Bubba, Mrs. Gray Wade, and Jack Morris journeyed to Hattiesburg to have their blood with Mrs. Tommy (Skipper) Holmes who had undergone major surgery — the Holmeses live on Davis in Waveland and formerly made their home in Hattiesburg. On the bowling front, Carmel Lenfant bowled a staggering 170 last Wednesday. How about that? Kitty Mollere is now wearing the silver bowling pin which she was awarded last month — and Strong's Town and Country bowlers are leading their league. Happy anniversary to Jeanne and Fred Lister — or perhaps I should be sending the greeting to their summer home on Jeff Davis — celebrated the tenth anniversary of summers in this house on Monday by entertaining a group of friends and relatives at a buffet — the guests included two of Jeanne's sisters, Mrs. Marjorie Volante of New Orleans and Jennie Kuscera — her brother Joe and wife, Louise, Fred's sister, Mrs. Jane Hassinger of Baton Rouge and Mr. and Mrs. E. Straub, Mr. and Mrs. A. Antz, and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hutcherson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ame, Bert Patterson and William Fagan, all of New Orleans, and Mr. and Mrs. James Atwood of Biloxi. The Wynners, Louise and Joe had a busy weekend — Sunday they are dinner guests of Bea and George Georgi-Louise's son Gene Atkins has a new job — or perhaps I should say position, he's manager of the New Maison Blanche cafeteria. The women of Waveland Methodist Church are sponsoring a cake sale Saturday. The booth will be in front of Haverty's — anyone wishing to order a cake in advance may call either Barbara White at HO 7-4095 or Mrs. O. H. Williams at HO 7-5310 — (I'm quite sure that the phone number now have a new code — but can't remember it — all one needs dial are the 7 and 4 numbers anyway) APOLOGY — The young man pictured in last week's Echo holding his large fish was Phillip Mollere, not Brian — strictly my error!

Notes On Dogs, Cats

Your reporter had the pleasure of meeting the very lovely and most charming Baroness Von Furstenburg last Saturday when we enjoyed coffee with the Gelgers, Kitty and Bob. The Baroness is such an interesting person because she is so interested in everything. She was accompanied by her small dog who remained quietly in the car as Pierre still rules the roost on home grounds — while on the subject of animals, dogs to be specific, Betty Phillips reports that little Heartbeat Honeyville III, offspring of a 12-year-old mamma, is doing nicely, than you. And we must send get well wishes to Betty and Donald Darn's pooch — he's in the vets recuperating from a broken leg. We also gleefully report that two of Abigail's kittens have homes promised — Mrs. Billy Connell has spoken for one and Fran Tarleton's maid (I hope) wants another. Hope putting this in print will prevent them from changing their minds!

Kate Saux is our birthday girl of the week — she celebrated Sunday with an initial dip in the Saux' lovely swimming pool wearing a new and most becoming green bathing suit — most of her gifts had a slight golfing tinge as that's her favorite sport — enjoying the delicious really home-made coconut cake made by "Uncle Bud's" mamma and decorated with golf tees, a silver loving cup and golf ball by Ruth Ballatin were Ruth and Matt Ballatin, Matt's mother, "Miss Annie, his brother, Norman and pretty daughter, Juanita Scruber, Bernice Flink, Doris and Dick Merritt, Fran and Dick (Cont. on Page 10.)

Waveland HD Club Has Window Display

Members of the Waveland Home Demonstration Club displayed their arts and crafts projects of the year in the window of Scrimshaw's Grocery, Coleman Avenue, during Home Demonstration Club Week. Mrs. A. J. Chagnard was chairman for the display with Mrs. Edward LeVasseur as co-chairman. Assisting with arranging the window were Mrs. F. Steger and Mrs. C. Faust.

Bologna Home Scene of Picnic

The beach home of Mrs. Anthony J. Bologna was the setting Tuesday of the annual picnic of the Lakeview Botany Guild picnic. Mrs. John Signorelli was co-hostess. After luncheon was served the group toured the garden of Dr. Walter Hava, then selected Mrs. George Reitmeyer as Miss Botany Guild of 1961 in an old fashioned bathing suit contest. She was presented with a ribbon and a bouquet of hydrangeas. The other contestants were Mesdames D. Miller, H. Porter, M. Taconi, M. Williams and R. Cohen, each received a gift. Members and their guests attending were Mesdames U. S. Allan, E. H. Montagnet, Jr., Berle Thomas, Stella

Young Visitor Fatally Hurt

A weekend visitor to Waveland was injured fatally early Sunday in a train-car collision near Keesler Air Force Base in Biloxi. He was Phillip Palosi, 16, of Algiers, La.

His companion, Jeanne Le Court, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank LeCourt, also of Algiers and the boy's host at their summer home here, was reported in fair condition at Biloxi Hospital where she was treated for a concussion, multiple contusions and possible fractures of the right arm and knee.

Her father reported that the young couple were returning home after taking an airman back to his base when the accident occurred.

St. John's Church Sets Annual Fair

Plans are being made for the annual fair at St. John's Catholic Church in Lakeshore with dates set for June 17-18. Special highlight will be presentations of six large door prizes.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN.

It was a rough weekend in more ways than one but the crabs bit. Water fishermen continue to have the best luck but some of the old regulars were out anyway and managed to bag a few. High winds have played havoc with this year's season — our records show that around this time last year soft shells were being picked up by the hundreds.

The water has also been unfavorable for soft shells and flounder. Most of the old regulars were out anyway and managed to bag a few. High winds have played havoc with this year's season — our records show that around this time last year soft shells were being picked up by the hundreds.

Keys Kef for Kern

Things are picking up at the Keys, Joe Kern reports. He and Jerry Roos of New Orleans went out Saturday afternoon and got some specks ranging from two and a half to three pounds. Joe says the water was rough as the dickens getting out and coming back and there was only a good hardy souls who attempted the trip but the water was only a good shape in spite of the white caps. He predicts a good season as soon as the wind lets up which should be soon. Reporting from Bayou Caddy, Bill Pinson says there were a few fair catches made in the marshes but nothing like they should be this time of the year. First speck of the season caught in the bayou was made Sunday by an unidentified party from New Orleans who caught about 60 croakers. The trout weighed four pounds which is a lunker in my book. No live shrimp yet, Bill says.

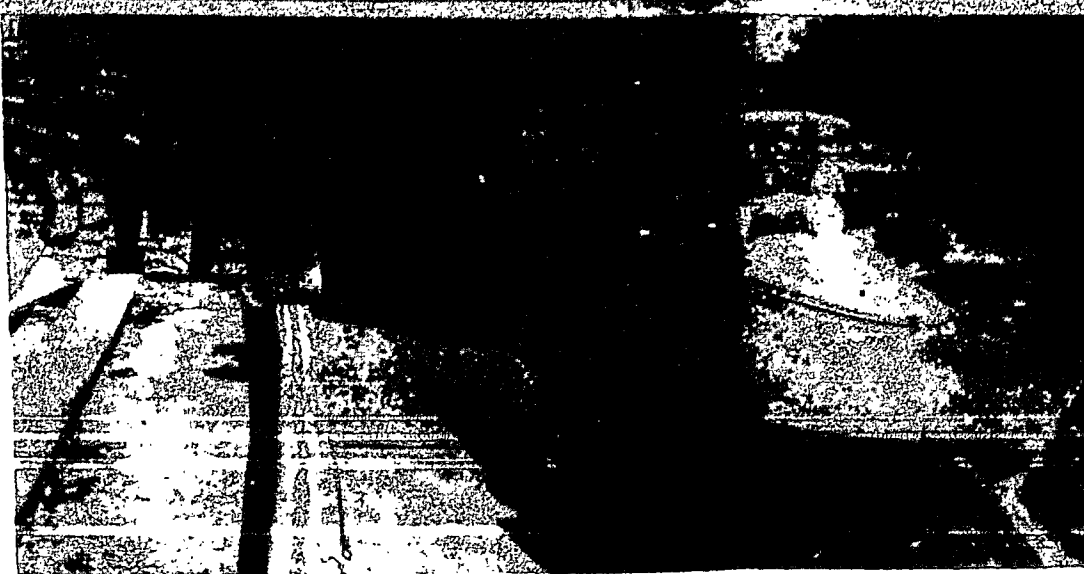

Blazes at the Bridge

Eddie and Rita Blazie threw caution to the winds Sunday afternoon and were rewarded with a hamper of about seven dozen big hard crabs caught around the railroad bridge. The water was rough for fishing but they saw Fred Fayard going out to give it a try anyhow.

Bernard Firpo of McDonald and Sons got a good haul of crabs and croakers off the highway bridge last Wednesday but Mrs. Firpo came up with the prize, a big speckled trout.

Chris Renshaw, wife of sportsman extraordinary Norman Renshaw, received her first prize for having low net in nine holes last day at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club Tuesday. Says Norman such a sportsman with his fishing, hunting, yachting, etc., she really goes to see him so has developed a new plan. Gets his break ready, bids him goodbye and heads for the golf course. What's her name for the gender.

A. R. Alexander and Bob Ladner caught a half pound bream fishing Little Lake which they say is somewhere in the northern part of the county. A half pound bream—why so secretive?

REGATTA — A crane prepares to lift boat in water before the power boat races Sunday sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Sideliners Club.

RACING BOAT FANS — The seawall on North Beach Boulevard was lined with thousands of fans Sunday afternoon during the Sideliners Power Boat Regatta.

Chapman Wins in Mallory

Harry Chapman will represent the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club in the district Mallory Cup races slated here for Saturday and Sunday. Chapman was top sailor in the eliminations the past two weekends.

Chapman compiled 32 points, a big lead over Carl Marshall, who was second with 21. Other points were Bob Boh, 19 1/4, Jim McDonald, 17, Ballard Argus 12 1/2, Don Chamberlain, 8.

Winners of the series will compete later in the summer at New Orleans Yacht Club for the Gulf Yachting Assn., title.

Other clubs participating will be Southern and New Orleans of New Orleans and Pass Christian Yacht Club.

Races will begin at 1:30 and 3 p.m. Saturday and at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

Bernard Farrelly, manager, noted that the entrance to the harbor has been dredged and depth now is about six feet, low mean tide.

In the opening regatta of the Gulf Yachting Assn. last weekend at Sarasota, Fla., Bay-Waveland skippers gained 14 points to the 27 compiled by the winning Biloxi crew. Leo Seal, Jr., skipper in the first race, finished seventh; John McDonald was ninth in the second race and Dr. W. L. McFarland, B-WYC skipper in the third event, was in sixth place.

Marshall Brown of Ft. Walton was elected GYA president with Nollie Alphonso of New Orleans vice president and J. Gilbert Shieb, also of New Orleans, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Next year's opening regatta was awarded to New Orleans Yacht Club.

Sideliners To Fete Stanislaus Athletes

The annual Sideliners' athletic banquet honoring this year's St. Stanislaus athletes is scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday in the school. Special entertainment will be at 7:30 p.m.

Carter Paces Traps Power Boat Races Draw Huge Crowds

Trapani's new softball team with Charlie Carter on the mound racked up their third consecutive trophy of the year Sunday beating McDonald Cleaners from Pass Christian 9-4 in the finals of an all-day tournament Sunday at Kiln. Proceeds of the event went to the Church of the Annunciation. They have a total now of 18 trophies after two seasons of play.

In other games the Traps beat Pop's Ferry of Biloxi 8-3, Youth Center of Bay St. Louis 6-2 with Donald Caldwell pitching and Knights of Columbus with Speedy Rhodes on the mound. Charlie Carter twirled all four games for Trapani.

The Traps had to come from behind in the final contest, McDonald's drawing first blood in

Stanislaus Land Requested for Negro Ball Site

Mayor John A. Scaffie asked St. Stanislaus College Monday for the use of property owned by the college for a Negro softball field.

The property requested is west of Old Spanish Trail near Booker Street. The mayor, speaking to Brother Hugh, S. C., principal, explained the city could have the property cleared of the trees and the college could have the timber.

Scaffie said today Brother Hugh told him he was awaiting the arrival next week of the Provincial and his council whose permission was necessary before a decision could be made.
